MANY VOICES. ONE SOUL.
SLAVIC CHORALE

Slavic Chorale was established in 2010 as a non-profit organization. The choir consists of volunteer singers from the Slavic community of the greater Sacramento region. We believe in the transformative power of music. It is therefore our goal that each person who will attend our concerts or other performances will leave a better person, that the audience will hear compositions that inspire and uplift them. We wish to glorify God through music and through service to people in our community.

Thank You!

Slavic Chorale received the 2012 “The Best by Russian-Speaking Community” Best Sacred Music Award.

Slavic Chorale is back from Italy!

The singers of Slavic Chorale went on their first international tour this past summer, performing for audiences in Venice, Florence and Rome. Upcoming trips include a Spring 2014 tour to Portland, OR, and a missionary trip to Frankfurt, Rome and Barcelona in September 2014.

Community performances included:

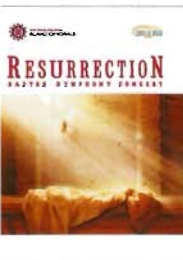

“It’s All About Kids” conference — an art gallery event held to raise funds for orphaned children, Christmas season performances at the Galleria Mall in Roseville, a performance at the Crocker Art Museum, pre-concert performance at the Sacramento Philharmonic, performances at local schools and assisted living communities.

GRAND MANSION CHRISTMAS

December 6, 2013
6:00 pm

Join us for a wonderful Christmas dinner and music at Grand Island Mansion, with special musical guests.

Tickets available tonight in the lobby.

Wings Charity Foundation.

Wings Charity Foundation seeks to preserve the Russian cultural heritage and to find ways of connecting and uniting people living in our community.

We also wish to help uncover the talents of the young generation.

Through partnerships with local schools, libraries, businesses, political organizations and chambers of commerce, we hope to bring our projects to life. These projects include scholarships for music students, financial support of a children's theater, and the organization of reading sessions for children.

We also support drug rehabilitation and education centers for at-risk youth.

Tonight during intermission: Art in the lobby.

Enjoy the artwork of international painters Valeriy Kagounkin and Tamara Magdalina, members of the Association of Russian Painters. The theme of the displayed works is dedicated to the spiritual and historical inheritance of Russia.

The works of these two artists have been displayed in museums in Russia, Germany, China, Scotland, Japan, Cyprus, France and the U.S.
